

The New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation
presents
the fourth annual

2009 Food Vendors

The Crescent City Blues & BBQ Festival is as much about food as music. While not all of our food vendors are strictly barbecue in the traditional sense, they specialize in grilled delights that can be found around New Orleans. And we have some tasty deserts, too.

Ba Mien Vietnamese Cuisine

Grilled shrimp skewers, grilled beef skewers, spring rolls

Beaucoup Sno-Balls

Fresh, healthy juices poured over sno-ball ice

Boswell's Jamaican Grill

Jerk chicken, steamed veggies and rice, beef and veggie patties

Food For Thought

Hamburgers, hot dogs, alligator sausage on a stick

The Joint

Pulled pork sandwich, smoked brisket sandwich, cole slaw, baked beans

La Divina Gelateria

Assorted gelato

Loretta's Authentic Pralines

Pralines, sweet potato cookies

Papa Joe's BBQ

Barbecue ribs, chicken and potato salad

The Praline Connection

Barbecue chicken drumettes, grilled chicken livers, crowder peas and okra, vegetarian greens

Tee Eva's Pies

Sweet potato pie, pecan pie

Vaucresson's Sausage Co.

Hot sausage, barbecued chicken sausage, crawfish sausage, po-boy on a stick

Walker's Southern Style BBQ

Cochon de lait po-boy (yes, the same one as at Jazz Fest!), cochon de lait salad