New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation’s Mission Statement:
The New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival and Foundation, Inc. promotes, preserves, perpetuates and encourages the music, culture and heritage of communities in Louisiana through festivals, programs and other cultural, educational, civic and economic activities.

Racial Equity Statement:
The New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation is committed to an anti-racist work practice that centers the creativity and leadership of Black, Indigenous and People of Color - those most impacted by structural racism - to move toward systems that benefit us all. We also acknowledge that we are on land belonging indigenous tribes of Louisiana. We seek new solutions that use arts as a strategy to drive not only our office, but Louisiana as a whole toward racial equity and social justice. We will continue to break barriers and build arts-integrated tools that challenge the status quo, and push us toward the inclusive society we envision. Building a race equity culture requires intention and action.

Acknowledgements and Affirmations:
As a step toward achieving healing and reconciliation, our organization acknowledges the traditional land that we stand on rightfully belongs to Indigenous Tribal communities. This land acknowledgement is just one step in inviting and honoring the truth of stolen land and correcting the stories and practices that continue to erase Indigenous people’s history and culture.

The Foundation recognizes that our society is challenged to overcome a complex web of inequities – racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia, biphobia, classism, and ableism among them. All of these forms of discrimination are powerful drivers of unequal individual and group outcomes. We support the work being undertaken to dismantle the array of social and economic injustices. Our priority is working against racism by working toward racial equity in arts funding.
