2022 GUIDELINES
Application due date: January 12, 2022

The purpose of the Catapult Fund is to encourage innovation and sustainability for entrepreneurs in the cultural industries through training and investment. The 2022 Catapult Fund is open to entrepreneurs in the beauty, fashion, and jewelry industries. This program is a partnership between the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation and Capital One Bank and the Louisiana Small Business Development Center Greater New Orleans and River Region. An education and funding program for entrepreneurs in the arts, the Catapult Fund provides intensive training in best practices for business, along with access to grant funding.

The 2022 Catapult Fund is focused on beauty, fashion, and jewelry.

To be eligible, applicants must have small Louisiana-based businesses in the beauty, fashion, and jewelry industries. These may include: clothing, cosmetics, soaps, hair products, and more.

The Catapult Fund provides a 12-session course, over a three-month period, of business training. Participants will learn business best practices and strategies. They will create a business growth plan and a business pitch.

Following completion of the training course, participants will be awarded grant funding.

To receive the grant funding award, participants must have completed the following:

✔ 100% of all training sessions; those who miss two or more classes may be dismissed from the program and will be ineligible for grant funding
✔ A business growth plan (the business growth plan is to be turned in to the program manager by the assigned due date)
✔ Minimum of four mentoring sessions with a business mentor that will be assigned during the training program
✔ Opening of a free Capital One business savings account by the due date
✔ Presentation of a business pitch
You should apply to the Catapult Fund if you meet ALL of the following criteria:

- You have a small business focused on beauty, fashion, or wellness in Louisiana
- Your business has gross annual revenues of less than $500,000
- You need training in best business practices
- You want to learn how to write a business growth plan
- You need access to funding
- You are willing to commit to attending (virtually) a 12-session training program over a three-month period in New Orleans

What you will gain from Catapult Fund:
Up to 12 business owners will be selected to attend the Catapult Fund training sessions, which will take place in New Orleans. This course of classes offers the following benefits:

- Business training in a variety of subjects
- Creation of a business growth plan
- Exposure to funding opportunities for your business
- Mentoring from experienced professionals in your field
- Free Capital One business savings account
- Confidence and the ability to articulate your business pitch
- Strategies to increase your revenues and profits
- Credit education and personal credit consultation
- A cash grant from the Catapult Fund

Stage 1: Application

- Submit an online application. Application due date: January 12, 2022 at 4:00pm CST.
- The top 20 applicants will be invited for an orientation and interview to determine which finalists will be invited to participate in the program.
- Attending the orientation and personal interview (via Zoom) session is Mandatory. Orientation/Interview is scheduled for January 25th, 2022.
- A review panel will select the business owners to participate in the 2022 Catapult Fund program. This 12-session course addresses core needs of small businesses and takes place virtually.
- Upon acceptance into the program, recipients will be asked for the following:
  - Profit and Loss for most recently completed fiscal year.
  - A Profit & Loss Statement. If you have a P&L statement available through a program such as Quickbooks, you’ll be asked to email that statement. If you need help creating a P&L, see our P&L sample documents at www.catapultfund.com
  - Most recent tax return/schedule C.
  - Certificate of incorporation, business permit, occupational license or other documentation that proves you are legally registered as a business.
Stage 2: Training
Attend Catapult Fund training sessions virtually. Selected participants will attend 12 sessions (2.5 hours each) to increase their knowledge of:

- Utilizing business advisors
- Identifying and reaching profitable customers and business opportunities
- Product placement
- Marketing basics
- Online marketing techniques: utilizing social media, website best practices, sales techniques, online presence
- Cybersecurity: keeping customers and data secure
- Best practices for resiliency and sustainability
- Accounting, record keeping, taxes, financial management
- Strategic growth plans, goal setting
- How to access capital to grow the business

Business Growth Plans: As part of the training course, participants will learn to write a business growth plan (“business plan”) that can be used to secure funding from banks or other sources of capital investment. Participants also will learn how to make a successful “pitch” to potential funders.

Stage 3: Graduation and Funding
Present a five-minute pitch of your business plan. The Catapult Fund training sessions will culminate with a pitch presentation. Each participant will submit their business growth plan to a panel of judges and will have five minutes to pitch their business.

Grant funding: All participants who successfully complete all the required elements of the Catapult Fund training program will receive a grant award from a pool of $50,000. The amount of grant awards made to individual Catapult Fund participants will not be determined until after the completion of the training program.
